

WOODLAND MANAGEMENT PLAN WITH LAYOUT

Grassed areas for foraging badgers.
Hedges are preferable to fences to demarcate boundaries between gardens to provide wildlife habitat.

Wall-mounted woodcrete bat boxes to be installed on South or West-facing external walls of dwellings, at 3-4m height (to avoid predation by cats).

